CAP AND CANDLE

1961

Presented By
The Hospital of the Woman's Medical College of Pennsylvania
School of Nursing

FOREWORD

As we, the class of 1961, bid farewell to our Alma Mater, W.M.C.H., we remember with pleasure the many experiences we have shared which will help mold us into better nurses and better women.

We shall always remember the people we have met here—the people we have worked, played, laughed, and cried a little with, for three wonderful years. In our hearts we have a storehouse of memories never to be surpassed. And so with this thought in mind, let us relive these memories one more time before we take our last big step into a world for which we have amply prepared.

DEDICATION

Because we love you and because without you, this education or yearbook would not have been possible—to you, OUR PARENTS, we dedicate the 1961 Cap and Candle.

GRADUATION

THE FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE PLEDGE

"I solemnly pledge myself before God and in the presence of this assembly to pass my life in purity and to practice my profession faithfully. I will abstain from whatever is deleterious and mischievous, and will not take or knowingly administer any harmful drugs. I will do all in my power to elevate the standard of my profession and will hold in confidence all personal matters committed to my keeping and all family affairs coming to my knowledge in the practice of my calling. With loyalty will I endeavor to aid the physician in his work and devote myself to the welfare of those committed to my care."

To the Class of '61,

I would like to leave with you, the thoughts of someone unnamed, but also someone who must have known a great deal about nurses.

THE NURSE

The world grows better year by year,
Because some nurse in her little sphere,
Puts on her apron and smiles and sings,
And keeps on doing the same old things.

Taking the temperature, giving the pills,
To remedy mankind's numberless ills,
Feeding the baby, answering the bells,
Being polite with a heart that rebels.

Longing for home and all the while,
Wearing the same old professional smile,
Blessing the newborn babe's first breath,
Closing the eyes that are still in death.

Taking the blame for the doctor's mistakes,
Oh dear, what a lot of patience it takes,
Going off duty at seven o'clock,
Tired, discouraged and ready to drop.

But called back on special at seven fifteen,
With woe in her heart, but it must not be seen,
Morning and evening and noon and night,
Just doing it over and hoping it's right.

When we lay down our caps and cross the bar,
Oh Lord, will you give us just one little star,
To wear in our crowns with our uniforms new,
In that city above where the Head Nurse is You.

AUTHOR UNKNOWN.

Sincerely,
Doris M. Archie

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the class of 1961, being of sound mind and body (how sound is questionable), leave to you, our "little sisters" and all who follow in our footpaths, the following:

Porgy Cox: her endless dates.
Helen Coyle: her "buns" for anyone who needs them!
Nancy Delaney: her bicycle pump to anyone with deflated tires.
Lois Estock: all her old Kennedy campaign buttons. Anyone?
Bebe Exley: her "vacancy" sign above her bed.
Chrisie Feraldo: her trips to the shore.
Erma Jean Gish: her sewing ability and great "philosophy" on life.
Sherrill Groff: her ability to find love among the psychotics.
Oy Hom: her wandering TV set.
Gale Imler: her leadership qualities, especially in Nutrition class!
Sandy Jones: all her electrical appliances to anyone with enough extension cords.
Kay Kolbe: her enthusiasm for foreign countries.
Toni Kuhn: her overnights.
Elaine Moser: her flat-chested Muu Muu to a lucky newcomer!
Pat Mosser: her extensive wardrobe . . . worn-out!
Irene Pelehach: her "old marriage license" to anyone with ideas; yes?
Lynne Brocious Pierce: her "extra pounds."
Carol Reh: all those old fraternity pins!
Pat Rhoads: alarm clocks, cow bells, and sirens to the next light (?) sleeper.
Barbara Rice: her bright red hair.
Merle Rice: her faithfulness.
Llona Rubert: her hemorrhoidal suppositories to anyone who wants them!
Diane Stewart: her yearbook tasks to a lucky junior.
Milly Wallen: her sleepless nights to all TV watchers!
Louise Yorty: her interest in the New England States.
Esther Wolfe Heisley: leaves with more than she came . . . Jack!

In addition we bequeath our memories—the senior comprehensives, our letters of apology, Mr. Hay's "bird bath," our poor "probie" years, Doctor Iacocco's micro-organisms, and all our little expressions as . . . "winner," "loser," "I hate night duty," and "we're not used for service."

Lastly, we leave our love and gratitude to our parents for their patience and understanding.
